Virtual Understanding and Reviewing of Guidelines

Parents/guardians are responsible for reviewing virtual camp/class guidelines with their child before the start of camp/class and ensure these guidelines are being followed at all times.

Supervision

Parents/guardians should supervise their children online, either directly or indirectly, subject to each child's age, maturity and parental discretion.

Appropriate Behavior

Device should be in an open area and participant appropriately dressed when interacting online. Online conversations and actions should always be appropriate.

Privacy

Privacy is very important. Do not share personal information over the internet (i.e. name, address, phone number, age, passwords, etc.). Please do not take screen shots, photos, or videos of anyone participating in PVRPD programs at home.

Cyberbullying

Cyberbullying is not appropriate and will not be tolerated. Cyberbullying includes sending, posting, or sharing negative, harmful, false, or mean content about someone else. It can include sharing personal or private information about someone else causing embarrassment or humiliation. Consequences may include removal from the program without a refund.

VIRTUAL CLASS RELEASE:

I hereby warrant and agree, that the conditions of my environment are safe, free from obstructions, and are suitable for participation in the above-referenced activity. I further understand and agree that any material downloaded, viewed or otherwise obtained through my participation in said activity is done at my own risk and the District is not responsible for any loss, alteration, corruption or other damage to my personal property, including computers, networks and other property used as part of my participation.
